HOUSE TO LET.

"Strange that a harp of thousand strings Should keep in tune so long."

THE subscriber has several chambers to let in his house which is beautifully located directly opposite Trinity Church Burying Ground; he will rent the rooms with furniture, or without, as may best suit the tenant. There is, probably, no more desirable spot in Newport, for those whose souls are not entirely steeped in sin, and wrapped up in the flimsy veil of this world's delusion; the occupant may sit at the window, and view the last home of man in all its mysterious and solemn grandeur,—and seriously reflect upon the great uncertainty of all things human. Here he can commune with himself, and meditate, in full view of the grave yard, on the final consummation of all things, and anticipate that universal crash, when the earth shall be burned up, and the heavens be rolled together as a scroll. We must reflect upon these things here, and be prepared with our passport when we meet the last Tyler, or we shall receive the fatal mark of the black brush; why, land! what is a few day's sojourn in this miserable world, compared to a high seat in the Celestial Lodge above, where the Knighthood will be gathered in the pure robes of innocence and beauty!

In order to secure the chambers, early application should be made, to:
Sir THOMAS PRATT, K. H. S.

NEWPORT, MAY 9, 1846.

From Yesterday's Second Edition.

FRIDAY EVENING—6 O'clock.

Reported for the Newport Daily News.

RHODE ISLAND LEGISLATURE.

Friday Morning.

The House met at 10 o'clock, pursuant to adjournment.

William French was appointed a committee to transfer the books and papers from Matthew Waite, late Clerk of the Court of C. Pleas for the county of Washington, to John G. Clarke, Jr., the Clerk elect. Several accounts, recommended by the committee, were allowed and ordered to be paid.

A resolution relative to the Eastern boundary line between this State and Massachusetts, authorizing the Commissioners of this State, to join those of Massachusetts, in putting up suitable monuments, boundary stones, &c., was passed.

Petition of Henry J. Duff, et al., naturalized foreigners, remonstrating against that clause in the Constitution of this State, requiring property qualifications for naturalized foreigners to enable them to exercise the elective franchise, was read and referred to a special committee.

William S. Patten, Esq., was appointed a committee to transfer the books and papers from the late Clerk of the C. of Common Pleas, for the county of Providence, to the Clerk elect.

Petition of Peace Humbly, for sale of real estate, was continued until the next session. Petition of Mary Harris, for the sale of real estate, read and granted.

Petition of Elizabeth Francis, for leave to file petition for divorce, was continued to the June session. Several other petitions, on various subjects, were also continued.

The resolution introduced by Mr. Clarke, a few days since, relative to the French Spoliation claims, was called up. Mr. Clarke stated that he had all the papers relative to the origin and history of these claims, and he had intended to go into a full and minute account of the whole matter; but as he did not wish to occupy the time of the House unnecessarily, although this was a very important matter,—it being late in the session, he should give a very brief history of these claims, calling the attention of the House to certain important facts. He then stated the origin and history of the claims, in a very brief and concise manner, showing that certain citizens of this State were sufferers to a large amount, by the destruction of property by the French cruisers; and also that the matter was now before Congress, and that the Senate had a bill now before them, appropriating five millions of dollars, to indemnify these claimants,—Congress having assumed these claims, in a former treaty with France.

Mr. Brown, of Cumberland, Mr. Shearman, of North Kingston, and Mr. Ballou, of Cumberland, spoke on the subject; after which, the resolution passed.

An act to incorporate the Newport and Fall River Railroad Company was passed to second reading, and granted.

Petition of Isaac Browning, for liberation, was read and granted.

Petitions of Caesar Hawkins, for liberation; Lydia Mason, Guardian, for the sale of real estate; were read and granted.

Petition of L. Havens, for stay of execution. The petitioner had leave to withdraw his petition.

An act in amendment of an act entitled an act for establishing a Court of Magistrates in the city of Providence, was passed.

Petition of Coventry Manufacturing company, for act of incorporation for the Aqueduct company, was read and granted; an act was passed.

Petition of Jane M. Graham, a foreigner, for leave to hold real estate, was read and granted.

An act in addition to an act entitled an act to regulate marriages and divorces, giving to the Supreme Court power to allow females, divorced by them, to assume their maiden name, if they choose, was passed.

Petition of W. W. Brown, for act of incorporation for the Ashland company, was continued with an order of notice.

The committee on the Charlestown contested election, were authorized to hold a meeting in the town of Charlestown, any time between now and the June session, and to send for persons and papers.

A resolution was passed enquiring into the proceedings of the Commissioners on the shell fisheries.

Mr. Bosworth, of Warren, introduced a bill relative to the Lien Law of this State, which was ordered to be printed, for the use of the House at its next session. E. W. Lawton and C. E. Robbins were appointed to audit the accounts of the General Treasurer.

A resolution was passed authorizing the General Treasurer to hire $25,000, for six months, for the purpose of paying a debt due from the State, to the Bank of North America, Providence.

Petition of Isaac S. Freeborn, for remission of fine for non-attendance, as grand jurymen, was read and granted.

An act authorizing the appointment of Inspectors of Saleratus, for the city of Providence, and the several towns in this State, was passed.

A resolution was passed appointing E. W. Lawton a committee to set out trees in the jail-yard in Newport; and ten dollars was appropriated for that purpose.

An account of Finch & Fings against the State, was received and referred to the committee on accounts.

Several concurrences from the Senate were read. A resolution from the Senate, authorizing auctioneers who have not made their returns, to do so by the first of July, was concurred in by the House.

The House then took a recess until half past 2 o'clock.

Friday Afternoon.

The Speaker called the House to order at half past 2 o'clock.

Several accounts were received and referred to the com. on accounts.

The sum of Four Hundred Dollars was voted to Gov. Jackson, being his salary for the last year, as Governor of this State; and the sum of Two Hundred Dollars was voted Gov. Dimon, being his salary for the last year, as Lieut. Governor of this State.

A bill for the protection of certain birds, came from the Senate, and was read for the first time. On motion of Mr. Buffum, of Cumberland, the bill was referred to the com. on the Judiciary, with instructions to report at the June session.

Petition of David Melville, relative to the descent of Intestate Estates, was received and referred to the Judiciary com.

An Act in relation to the proceedings in actions of ejectment, was received and referred to the Judiciary com.

Several communications from the Governors of several States, were received and referred to a special committee, consisting of Messrs. Patten, Clarke, and Tourtellot.

Several concurrences from the Senate were read.

The sum of Three Hundred Dollars was voted to Joseph M. Blake, Attorney General, for his services in defending the martial law cases, brought against certain citizens of this State.

Petition of Albert Little, for liberation, was granted.

The House then adjourned, to meet again in Newport, the fourth Monday of June next.

SENATE.

All the bills and petitions that were passed in the House were concurred in by the Senate. On some of them there were debates, but not of a very interesting or important nature.

The Senate then adjourned, to meet again in Newport, the fourth Monday in June next.

The retired Lieutenant Colonel is judicious in postponing his Mexican trip till the fall. For our part, we expect to walk through blood and carnage with 'our army' to the palaces and haciendas of Mexican tyrants, and sleep under a mosquito net in 'the halls of Montezuma,' before sunny June finishes her cherries. The Colonel will be welcome to the field where our warriors shall have wreathed their brows in glory.—Boston Star.

Ah, Corporal, it will be only your warriors that will "wreath their brows in glory," if there is any fighting to do, we fear you will never reach the "halls of Montezuma," unless you cut across lots, behind the enemy.

We copy the following cool article from the New London Morning News, of the 6th inst. What does it mean?

NOTICE.—The Editor of the Newport Rhode Islander having taken the liberty to inform the public of what he calls my carelessness, and of my endangering the lives of the passengers, &c., because I would not pass him along free, and give him his dinner and wine, I take this occasion to state that I shall treat him to something stronger than wine, unless he attends to his own business, and leaves mine alone.

This smart Editor, it seems, was standing on the wharf at New London, watching a chance to catch something—and if I had been aware that he was hungry, it is probable that I should have invited him to take a small bite. After the passengers had all landed, as I supposed, and had given orders to haul out the plank and back the engine, two ladies, who had purchased tickets for New York, but altered their minds, and concluded to stop at New London, stepped on to the plank to go ashore, just as the boat began to move. They ran a great risk of being hurt, but I saw them in time to save them from injury. This supine Editor cannot get "blackmail" here, but he may get some that is red, if he isn't careful.

J. VAN PELT, Steamer New Haven.

N. B.—If the said Editor does not retract the charges complained of, I shall take the liberty to cow-hide him the first convenient opportunity. J. V. P.

A friend informed us this morning that the article alluded to in the above card, appeared in the columns of the Bristol Phoenix. Capt. Van Pelt has been mistaken in the name of the newspaper.

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS.

SATURDAY, MAY 9, 1846.

THE LEGISLATURE.—The Legislature adjourned last evening, after a session of four days, in which a great variety of important business has been transacted, a full report of which we have given in our columns, each day, in an hour after the adjournment.

This is the first time since the adoption of the Constitution, and, in fact, since the foundation of the State, we are informed, that the Legislature has been called upon to elect a Governor; there have been occasions before, when there was no election by the people—but under the Charter Government the Legislature was not empowered to make choice of that officer, so that repeated efforts were made, until the object was accomplished. This, therefore, was an important election, inasmuch as it formed a new feature in the political history of Rhode Island.

In addition to the election of Governor and Lieut. Governor, the Legislature have also chosen all the Civil officers of the State, for the ensuing year; passed many important public acts, and granted an almost endless variety of petitions, both of a public and private nature; among others, the act incorporating the Newport and Fall River Railroad Company, passed the Senate and House of Representatives, unanimously; and the necessary arrangements will immediately be made to have the stock taken up. We are confident, from all we can learn on the subject, that this will be done immediately, as it is a project of such public importance, that capitalists and business men are well aware of its utility.

Among other important acts of the Legislature, was the passage of a series of resolutions relative to the Spoliation claims for indemnification for loss of property by American citizens, destroyed by French cruisers, prior to the year 1800. The resolutions instruct our Senators, and request our Representatives in Congress, to use their best exertions to procure the passage of a bill, at the present session, making a pro rata payment to these claimants, from the four millions of dollars in the U. S. Treasury, at the time of the Louisiana purchase.

Prior to the year 1800, the United States entered into a Treaty of Alliance, offensive and defensive, with France; and in the French war which ensued soon after, that nation called upon our Government to render them assistance, in conformity to the Treaty, as they understood it; but the U. S. did not interfere, and the French nation, being driven to a state of starvation, almost ordered their vessels of war to seize every ship on the high seas bearing the American flag, and take all the provisions, &c., found on board of them. Previous to this, however, Gen. Washington issued his celebrated neutrality Proclamation; but these depredations were continued, to a great extent, until the elder Adams ordered our vessels of war to cruise over the ocean, and attack any French vessel that had been guilty of any of these invasions. This was called the quasi war of his administration. In a subsequent treaty with France, the United States assumed these claims, in consideration of the distinguished services rendered this country by that nation, during our revolution, and also of grants made to that nation. We have no room by pursue this interesting matter any further, at this time.

Now that the Legislature has adjourned, we shall be able to give our readers a greater variety of matter, than we have, for a few days past. We shall resume the publication of a story on our outside, and continue it with each future number.

We shall publish on Monday, the report of the Ecclesiastical Council, recently in session at the North Baptist Church, in this town; it goes fully into the merits of the case, and is exceedingly interesting.

A MERRITOUS ACT.—As the Steamer Roger Williams was leaving the wharf yesterday afternoon, a small lad, named Weeks fell off the head of the wharf, and would have been driven, had not Mr. Benjamin C. Card, who was standing near the spot, immediately jumped into the water, and seized the child, holding his head out, until Mr. Thomas S. Townsend reached down, and lifted the child from his perilous situation.

MADAME ADOLPHIE is astonishing the citizens of Providence, by revealing to them all that they ever have, or ever will do. We hope she will come here, and if she does, we shall endeavor to get her to inform us whether the Herold man actually intends to start a daily paper.

CONNECTICUT.—The two Houses of the Legislature of Connecticut, met in joint convention Thursday morning, to choose State Officers. 214 votes were given; of which Isaac Toucey, dem., received 124, Clark Bissell, whig, 116. The rest of the officers elected were also democrats.

There is a machine at the Navy Yard, Washington, which will manufacture 40,000 bullets in a day.

McLeod, the commander of the Great Liverpool, recently wrecked on the coast of Spain, committed suicide a few days after the disaster, through grief and mortification.

Mr. Eddy, of Providence, an excellent dancing master, is giving instruction, in his art, to classes at Masonic Hall, in this town. Ladies' school Wednesday and Thursday, afternoon, gentlemen's, Wednesday and Thursday evening. Mr. Eddy also has a class of "interesting infants" every Tuesday and Friday evening. All who wish to acquire a knowledge of this healthy and fashionable art, should avail themselves of this favorable opportunity.

The Provincial Council of the Roman Catholic Church, composed entirely of bishops and theologians from all parts of the United States, and which convenes but once in three years, will commence its session at the Cathedral in Baltimore, to-morrow morning. There will be twenty-six bishops present, each of whom will be attended by at least one theologian. There will also be a large number of the priesthood in attendance, from the various States. Its discussions are with closed doors.

A new theatre is soon to be erected in Baltimore, on Baltimore street, between Charles and Hanover.

Green peas, at twenty-five cents per peck, and strawberries at twenty-five cents per quart, are beginning to make their appearance in the Baltimore market.

NOVEL ENGINES OF WAR.—Several Fire Engines, says the London Punch, have been constructed for the Colonies. One of them will be sent over to Oregon, for the purpose of putting Jonathan's pipe out.

The Magnetic Telegraph has been completed as far West as Syracuse.

We understand that Prof. Spaulding, the teacher of walking, intends giving a series of fashionable reunions at Newport, this summer.

The number of deaths in the city of Boston for the week ending the 21 inst., was 51; males 31, females 23.

The steamer Hendrick Hudson brought to N. Y. City, one day last week, 1,000 passengers, at twenty-five cents a head.

Correspondence of the Express.

WASHINGTON, May 6.

It is said that a member of the House will introduce a resolution this week for the adjournment of Congress on the 13th of July. Congress will not adjourn as early as this probably by a month.

In the Senate, from Administration Senators, I have heard the 1st of August named, and out of it the 1st of September. The little done during the first five months hardly gives warrant of an adjournment much before the latest day named.

VIRGINIA ELECTION.—Eight Democratic majority in the Senate—and 14 or 16 in the House of Delegates. Joint majority 20, probably.

An inhabitant of Corin, who recently returned from Spitzbergen, after an absence of 28 years, found his wife in good health, but the widow of three husbands.

Hon. Caleb Cushing is talked of as the Democratic candidate for Governor of Massachusetts, at the next election.

A new Episcopal church, with an iron spire, is to be constructed at Pottsville, Penn. The spire is to be 90 feet high.

Benefits of Advertising.—Ninety nine out of every hundred of the fortunes which have been amassed within the space of ten years in regular business pursuits, may be ascribed to the advertising power of the press. It is the means of disseminating information throughout the country, and attracting customers from all quarters.—Brooklyn N. Y. Adv.

The last case of modesty is that of a lady who discarded her lover, a sea captain, because, in speaking of one of his voyages, he said that he hugged the shore.

THE Subscriber would respectfully give notice to the Ladies and Gentlemen of this place and vicinity, that he has taken and refitted the rooms formerly occupied by him, in the R. Union Bank Buildings, for the purpose of executing MINIA-

TURES by the Daguerreotype Process. Having but a short time since returned from New York, with all the latest improvements, he feels confident that he can give those that will honor him with a call, a miniature superior in tone, and finish, to any ever before offered to the public, and at prices that cannot fail to please.

None know how to appreciate these Miniatures, until they are called to part with a near relation, or an intimate friend, when perhaps it may be too late, to catch the light over their shadow fades; therefore, those that wish a correct likeness, as well as a fine picture, of themselves, or friends, will do well to give an early call.

Any person having fine Paintings, Portraits, or Miniatures, can have them copied with great accuracy.

These Miniatures can be set in Lockets, Pins, Frames, Cases, &c., to suit the purchaser.

Persons sitting for a Miniature at these rooms, is warranted a perfect Likeness or no charge.

You will excuse, kind reader, the above innocent deception to induce you to read this advertisement, as it is for your benefit as well as our own.

RE-OPENING OF THE UNITED STATES CLOTHING STORE.

A still greater revolution in the sale of READY-MADE CLOTHING. New Store and new Goods, at the old stand, where the public have been favored, with so many good bargains. 91 Thames street, one door north of Messrs. W. B. & E. J. SWAN'S.

THE PROPRIETOR of this Establishment has the pleasure of informing the people of Newport and its vicinity, that he has leased the new and commodious store, 91 Thames street, for the purpose of carrying on the Ready Made Clothing Business, where the public may be assured that they will always find on hand the largest assortment of Clothing and Furnishing Goods in the place, as well as the lowest prices. If I can but induce the people to call upon me, I will give them the most positive proof of the truth of this assertion, as I am determined to secure for the United States Clothing Store a tremendous run of custom, and, aware as I am, that competition is so severe, that the only mode of success is to offer my Goods at a small advance on Cost. Will the people call upon me? I will give them the most positive and pleasing evidence of what I say; still more, I will not urge them with undue persuasion to purchase what they do not want. The custom of firing goods upon people has become so prevalent that they are sorely perplexed to know where they can go and be allowed the use of their own judgment in selection of Goods. Once more I beseech of you to call and examine my stock of Clothing and Furnishing Goods, before purchasing elsewhere, which consists of a large and good assortment of FROCK and DRESS COATS, of a variety of styles and colors; also, a large quantity of TWEEN FROCK and SACK COATS; 2 or 3 dozen of the GOLD MIXED TWEED, a most beautiful article for summer, Kentucky Jeans, and a great variety of other kinds, too numerous to mention.

JACKETS.

Blue Broadcloth Jackets, made expressly for the United States Clothing Store, and warranted as good as custom made; together with Blue, Black, and Mixed Satinets; Black Bombazine, and Green Baize Jackets, of various qualities and prices.

PANTALOONS.

Superfine black and blue black dress Cassimere, Broadcloth,

Doe Skin and figured Cassimere; Super do. do. Plaid Satinets; Fancy do; Vermont Pants, Canada

Gray do. VESTS.

A rich assortment, consisting of some beautiful Cashmere patterns, some straight collars; Figured Satins, Plaids, and Stripes, do, Plain do. Silk and Worsted, Black Silk Velvets, Dark Valencia, black Antestring and Bombazine, do. As well as the above articles, I have a great variety of Coats, Pants, Vests, and Jackets, made of various kinds of goods, which go to make up a full assortment, but which it is needless to specify.

FURNISHING GOODS.

I challenge the place to show such an assortment. I have Shirts of the latest French styles and patterns, with yoke necks, from $1.25 to $2.50; also, common Shirts, with linen bosoms and collars, from 67c to $1.50. Linen Bosoms, plain, pleated, and Ruffled, from 25c to $1.00. Linen Collars of all styles and qualities, from 8c to 25c. Cotton Flannel Shirts and Drawers, Lamb's wool, do; Portsmouth, do; Red twilled Under-shirts and Drawers; Hickory Shirts and Overalls.

HANKYERCHES.—Twilled Splitfaced, Plaid, do, figured Pongee, white and red, do; Bandanna, do, &c. &c.

STOCKS AND CRAVATS.

Fancy Silk and Satin Tye Stocks; Bombazine and Black, do, do; Satin ends, do; Bow, do; Plain, do; Bombazine Bow and Satin pleated

Stocks; Rich figured Silk and Satin Cravats and Hdkfs.; Italian Silk Hdkfs., Black French, do, Linen, Muslin, Madras, and Gingham, do.

HATS and CAPS; the assortment is very large—call and examine for yourselves.

Suspenders of every description, from 8c to $1.25. Silk, Gingham and Cotton Umbrellas; Hickory, Palm Wood, and Rattan Canes.

Seamen's Clothing; Oil Suits; Reefing Jackets; Glazed Hats; Overalls, &c. &c.

Trunks, Valises, and Carpet Bags; also Ladies' Hat Cases; Fancy Articles, and Perfumeries.

Also—R. B. ELDE'S celebrated Hydrosomia or concentrated Prussian Essence, combining all the fragrant properties of the well known odoriferous compound, acknowledged by the Royal Family and Nobility, the most elegant perfume for the assembly or boudoir, imparting to the handkerchief a very agreeable, refreshing and lasting odor.

BOYS CLOTHING.

The United States Clothing Store stands unrivalled in the sale of Boys' Clothing; and I have now on hand a large assortment of blue and black Broadcloth Suits, that will fit boys from 4 years old to ten. Also, a large assortment of Fancy Suits of the best French Cassimere. Don't forget the number, 91 Thames street, sign of the large Window.

Edited by LAWRENCE LARREE, and Published by WILLIAM TAYLOR, No. 2 Astor House, New-York.

THE Second Volume of the "ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE" will be commenced with the May number, and will be published about the fifteenth of April, and the success which has so far attended our enterprise has determined us to spare nothing that will insure an increased patronage. The large edition printed of the first volume was exhausted on the publication of the fourth number.

Our new volume will be commenced with a much larger edition, to secure for subscribers complete sets, and will possess INCREASED ATTRACTIONS! Great improvements will be made in our Engravings, giving FOUR SPLENDID STEEL PLATES in each number, and a variety of finely executed ILLUSTRATIONS ON WOOD! The letter-press will be of a high and refined order, original and selected, consisting of Romance, Historical Sketches, Poetry, Essays, Reviews, Biography, &c. &c. Our selections will be mostly from sources beyond the reach or means of the general reader, and no pains or expense will be spared to make it worthy the attention of every one.

The Magazine will be handsomely printed on Butler's superior paper, with bold beautiful type, and each number will contain SIXTY-FOUR LARGE OCTAVO PAGES! making two elegant volumes a year of 768 pages, (384 each,) illustrated with FORTY-EIGHT ENGRAVINGS ON STEEL! independent of the numerous illustrations on wood.

As a LADY'S and GENTLEMAN'S Magazine, it may be welcomed by, and prove an agreeable companion to, the most fastidious.

Arrangements have been made to procure original translations from some of the most popular French authors. The press in all parts of the country have been lavish in their praises of the "Illustrated Magazine," as will be seen by the following:

"The Journal of Commerce" says: "The literary contents are of the most interesting character."

"The Rambler" says: "It is destined to be the Magazine of the country."

It is got up in a very elegant style, type, paper, engravings—all good. * * It will prove a powerful rival among its lighter competitors.—N. Y. Evening Mirror.

Each number contains four gems of the old or new masters, besides some half a score of woodcut illustrations of the literary contents.

It will be a favorite for all those who look for choice pictorials.—N. Y. Sunday Atlas.

Of its literary contents we need not speak, unless to say that they are "increasing rich."

One of the largest and handsomest magazines now published.—Kosciusko, (N. Y.) Republic.

Decidedly one of the best periodicals of the day.—Dover, (N. H.) Gazette.

The embellishments are uncommonly elegant, both in design and execution.—N. Y. True Sun.

It is a work which ought to have a great circulation.—New's Weekly Messenger.

Light, graceful, pleasant reading, of a pure moral tone and mostly novel, accompanied with no less than four steel and four wood engravings, which elegantly embellish as well as illustrate the work.—Park Benjamin's Western Continent.

Those who wish a first-rate table companion, must obtain the New-York Illustrated Magazine.—Barre, (Mass.) Post.

It contains half [steel] engravings, and a large number of wood cuts, besides sixty-four pages of excellent reading matter.—Phila. Chronicle.

One of the pleasantest periodicals of light literature published in this country.—Portland Bulletin.

Numerous other compliments might be cited, had we room.

AGENTS, and persons wishing to commence with the new volume, are requested to send in their order as soon as possible, to secure complete sets.

TERMS.—Yearly subscription, $3; two copies, $5; or five copies (to one address) $12.

All letters of subscription, and orders, addressed to Wm. Taylor, 2 Astor House.

This Soap is an Eastern Botanical discovery of superior efficacy for rendering the skin soft, clear and fair, and imparting to the complexion a healthy rosy hue; as a creator and conservator of a transparent fair skin Radway's Chinese Medicated Soap may be said to exert an almost magical effect; it being perfectly free from all mineral admixture; it is distinguished for its extremely bland, purifying and soothing effects upon the skin, while by its action on the pores and minute secre-tory vessels expels all impurities from the surface, allays every tendency to inflammation, and effectually removes all redness, Tins, Pimples, Spots, Freckles, Salt Rheum, Ring Worm, Erysipelas, Rash, and other unsightly cutaneous visitations.

PICKLES,

PUT up in wine vinegar, a choice selection for family use at the Franklin Hall, corner of Thames and Fair streets. FRANK HAMMETT.

Edited by JOHN INMAN and ROBERT A. WEST. IN entering upon the fifth volume of the Columbian Magazine, we find ourselves somewhat perplexed as to the right execution of our task. We have much to say of the past, but it might seem egotistical to say it; and we have much to say of the future, but we fear lest we should appear unduly to boast. On the other hand, something at this season must be said, lest we should appear ungrateful for the steadily increasing patronage bestowed upon us. Is not ours a pleasant predicament? On one hand stands the spirit of our proverbial modesty, and the monitor we begin to speak of what we have done and shall do, it lays its shadowy finger upon its ghostly lips, and with other mysterious gestures frowns us into silence; on the other hand the generous public—the embodiment and impersonation of several thousands of subscribers and readers—demands that we pay tribute to their liberal patronage, that we recall the pleasures they have been wont to enjoy for now two years in our pages, and that we declare our plans for the future. We have, of course, no choice left but to exorcise the ghost of our native bashfulness. 'Tis done;—and now we will talk freely with our "dear public," of ourselves and our intentions.

How rapidly, and notwithstanding difficulties to be surmounted, how pleasantly has time sped since we tried the experiment of a new magazine in this greatemporium of commerce. Two years only have elapsed, and yet our enterprise has been crowned with success, and the pages of the Columbian Magazine periodically gladden and instruct the hearts of the matchless fair ones of our own proud city and state, throwing the light of its pleasant tales and ever virtuous sentiments ever many thousand family circles, fostering purest affections and teaching lessons that well might fall from mother's lips into maiden's listening ears. Already has our magazine numerous readers in every State of the Union. The shrewd and observant New-Englander greets it with a hearty welcome; on summer's eve beneath shady trees, or on winter's night around the glowing hearth, many a youthful son of a worthy sire reads aloud from its pages, while beautiful and virtuous daughters play the willing needle, and aged sire and dame exchange approving and delighted glances. Far away in the thickly peopled West do we aid in upholding and perpetuating the refining influence of literature and art, and soothe the asperities of arduous toil and isolated life; and the sunny South greets us monthly with a frank and generous welcome. Yes, brief though our existence has been, it has neither been profitless nor joyless. We have sought to supply Americans with a magazine worthy of American, and the universal hail of welcome that has greeted us has far exceeded our expectations, while it has increased our conviction that a magazine such as we have been able to furnish, was needed for the many thousands of American readers.

We enter upon our third year with bright and cheering prospects. Every where has the press spoken in terms of high commendation, not alone of the literary contents of the Columbian, but of its unsurpassed embellishments, and never with warmer praise than during the last six months. This, with our increased circulation, we take as an acknowledgement that we have fulfilled the promises we renewed six months ago. We need not again renew them. Be it ours to do and not to boast. To those who have patronized us so far, we offer grateful thanks. We have no doubt that we shall continue to secure their approval and their good wishes. To those who, now that the new postage law is in full operation and a new year is commencing, will doubtless avail the list of our patrons, we say that we have contracted for, and have in progress some of the richest and rarest embellishments, for the new volume, that have ever been produced in this country.—Embellishments designed as well as executed expressly for this work; and that we have entered into treaty with many of the first American authors regularly to aid us by their literary labors. These arrangements have of course entailed upon us great expense, but we intend that the Columbian shall be the first—in every respect the best—of American magazines. Let there be no misapprehension on this point, and let our friends give us the return of a still larger patronage, for we will deserve it.

As to the past or future discharge of our editorial duties it behooves us to say little. We shall indeed but express our obligations to our numerous correspondents, and request a continuance of their favors, assuring them that they shall ever have the most courteous attention at our hands.

We have but to add that the publisher enters upon a new volume, therefore, with expectations of increased patronage. He has every reason for indulging such expectations. Increased exertions will be made to deserve it in each department of the work.

Speaking of correspondents, we refer with pride to the annexed list of those who have hitherto aided us, embodying, as it does, names that are an honor to our country's literature—those who have attained to the highest fame and others
